

Presentation Professionals in PowerPoint

Daedalus Presentations is a consulting company that creates presentations which through synergy of content and design are experienced as authoritative.

Daedalus was a great designer in the Greek mythology who presented concepts in a way they were accepted as reality.

What can Daedalus Presentations mean to you?

Daedalus Presentations consults and supports with the development of presentations in PowerPoint. Services can vary from upgrading an existing presentation (re-design of electronic house style, language editing and translating, adding graphics and animating etc.) up to 'starting from scratch'. When starting from scratch Daedalus Presentations consults the contractor from brainstorming the concept, writing the spoken and visual text, developing the visual content and supporting hardware management on location. Daedalus Presentations excels in communication solutions in PowerPoint.
